

DOMAINE DE BOISCHAMPT

BEAUJOLAIS-VILLAGES RED 2018

Colour: Medium ruby hue, youthful.

Aroma: Soft and pleasant nose with voluminous floral and fruit notes - violets, currants, and cherries.

Palate: Alive and inviting, soft, fresh acid. Middle palate is light, long, suave and balanced. Good finish with silky-smooth texture, complemented by beautifully coated and consistent tannins.

A great wine to enjoy now, and one that will grow with age.

- Variety: Gamay Noir
- Vineyard: Selection of parcels from northern Beaujolais vineyards with northern exposure
Average vine age of 38 years - parcels planted from 1965 to 1992
- Soil: Blue volcanic stone
- Winemaking: Fruit hand harvested in September
40% whole bunch in ferment
25% of wine matured in oak for 11 months
- Oak: Austrian and French barrels (10% new)
- Alcohol: 13.0% alc. vol.
- When: Enjoy now after a vigorous decanting or mature for 5 to 7 years
- Food: Delicious with duck, venison, sausage and holds its own with spicy tandoori

IMPORTED BY MIKEPRESS WINES